

HALL ADVISOR JOB DESCRIPTION

2023-2024

Introduction

Bryn Mawr College believes that living with other students is a valuable part of the college experience. Students learn from participating in the diverse social environment of their hall, and the personal relationships they form there significantly enhance their academic learning. The Hall Advisor (HA) role was developed to be an important resource for students living in the halls. HAs have been a part of residential life at Bryn Mawr for over three decades. During that time, student evaluations have consistently expressed residents' appreciation for the HA position and for the work of the HAs on their halls.

General Statement of Duties

The Hall Advisor is a junior or senior who is assigned to a particular residence hall and serves as an advisor to

Residential Life Team Member:

Attends and participates in HA training and meetings organized by Residential Life and/or other College staff and assists with regular Residential Life operations, such as dorm closings.

These are mandatory commitments and include, but are not limited to:

Successful completion of all online education modules

Hall Advisor Orientation (August 23-September 4, 2023 *subject to change)

Fall Semester Dorm Closing (December

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Angie Sheets

Residential Life Office, 610/526-7331

reslife@brynmawr.edu